Will Re-Dedicate St. Clare's Sunday

Four remodeled buildings of St. Clare's Parish in Waveland will be re-dedicated at 11 a.m. on Sunday, October 25, during a mass to be celebrated at St. Clare's Catholic Church by the Most Rev. Joseph B. Brunini, bishop of Natchez-Jackson. Buildings to be re-dedicated are St. Clare's Church, school, convent and cafeteria which were destroyed by Hurricane Camille in 1969. All remodeled structures were designed by J. Buchanan Blitch and Associates, architects of New Orleans and Gulfport. The church, convent and school involved the remodeling of existing slabs and structural frames and the cafeteria is a new structure built on existing slab. All buildings in the complex have the same red brick color and detail "which provides order and harmony to the parish plant," according to Bill Argus, Jr., director of the Gulf Coast office of J. Buchanan Blitch and Associates, who was architect in charge of the project.

City Council Meetings

Mayor Warren J. Carver announces 10:00 a.m. each first and third Monday in each month there is a meeting of the City Council to which any interested citizen is welcomed to attend. Mayor Carver said: "We rarely have guests and wonder if the public knows it is welcome to sit in on any of these meetings during which time matters pertinent to city government are discussed, resolutions made and voted upon."

Schedules Fire Ant Eradication Program

A massive fire ant eradication program involving some 75,000 acres of land, but excluding the MRF buffer zone is scheduled to get under way on Monday, according to John Smith, County Agent, whose report to the Board of Supervisors on Monday indicated plans would be used to scatter the mix over most open acreage, however, jeeps will be used to distribute the poison in the Shore Line Park area.

Smith said the Buffer Zone was being excluded as other experimental work is being done toward ant eradication in that area. He said many chemicals had been used experimentally in the fight against the fire ant, however, mirex is felt to be preferable since it does not kill wild life, birds, or the fish in ponds. Smith said mirex is a sweetened bait which is carried by the worker ant into the hive and when eaten by the Queen she dies. "Following the death of the Queen," Smith said, "the ant colonies will then die."

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors working in conjunction with the Department of Agriculture will supply workers and vehicles to be used in this project. Smith said the mirex, harmless to individuals, cattle, birds and fish, will be used in varying dilutions from three per cent to as little as one per cent and is expected to destroy the most effective dosage. Thousands of dollars of damages have been caused in this county by the school involved the remodeling of existing slabs and structural frames and the cafeteria is a new structure built on existing slab. ## An Exciting Week For Hancock County

The first fair in Hancock County in many years will take place November 2-7. Age means nothing. A little talent of some sort is what counts. Everyone from the county and surrounding counties will enjoy and get many ideas from the exhibits to be shown. A Fair Parade is scheduled for Saturday, October 31, 1970 in Bay St. Louis. A little talent of some sort is what counts. Everyone from the county and surrounding counties will enjoy and get many ideas from the exhibits to be shown.

Will Erect Building

Erection is scheduled to begin on Monday of the pre-fab "Mitchell Building" designed to house live stock during the Hancock County Fair. The building is 50 feet x 140 feet in dimensions and is to be a permanent addition to the fair grounds and when not in use for fair exhibits may be used for other community purposes and projects, Griffin said. There is need for volunteers who are willing to give a few hours of spare time to assist with the carpentry work, it was stated.

To Review Repair Costs

Members of the Governor's Emergency Council have agreed to review the figures covering costs on Court House repairs for Camille-caused damages, according to a report made by Fred Wagner, architect and at a hearing on Monday before the Hancock County Board of Supervisors. Wagner said the G.E.C. had set a figure of $42,000 as adequate to do specific repairs and said the representatives of the council insist the work be done by February 17, 1971.

Wagner said allowable funds would be insufficient to cover the costs of all needed repairs, however, he felt the roof, court room, and outside repairs could be made with this amount of money. Because of the urgency of making an early decision President of the Board, Russell Elliott, requested Wagner to submit a document giving a more detailed cost breakdown to enable members of the Board to make a decision as of Monday, October 26, when they will convene to decide the best course of action. It is understood the available money to be supplied by the G.E.C. is a "matching fund" agreement with the County putting up one-fourth of repair costs.

Jourdan River Developers Seek Use Of Escrow Money

Walter James Phillips, attorney for the Jourdan River Shores subdivision development and Buddy Broadway, engineer representing that concern, gave satisfactory proof on Thursday evening to the Hancock County Planning Commission that subdivision regulations are now being fully complied with. Ruble Griffith, Atty. for the Commission, was instructed to draw a resolution which, if approved by members of the Planning Commission, will be presented to the Board of Supervisors in order that they may approve or reject a plan which would authorize sale of lots in the Second Phase of the development. The developers seek to secure funds from the escrow account in order to complete development of Phase One. It was pointed out the Hancock County Planning Commission was appointed by the Board of Supervisors to act in the interest of the property owners and the county. While they have no direct authority they are charged with the responsibility of investigating various phases of progress on sub-division developments and to make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors. In early stages of the development controversy arose because developers allegedly had not adhered to the provisions with specific reference to providing potable water, a sanitary sewerage system and a system of paved streets prior to offering lots for sale. An escrow account was established and the Colonial Bank of New Orleans received deposits of $400 from each lot sold which was to insure the County and the property holder that funds were available for the establishment of the advertised facilities. It was agreed these funds would remain in escrow until all regulations were complied with and then turned over to the developers. Reports are there is now an escrow account approximately $20,000.00.

County Circuit Court Decisions

Judge Harry Walker this week handed down several decisions in cases being tried on the State District in the Hancock County Circuit Court. In case styled No. 4450 Raymond James Crowe charged with Grand Larceny, a case carried over from the last term of court, and following a plea of "guilty as charged" a fine of $500 was imposed together with all costs of court. This case had to do with stolen hogs and pleadings were allegedly involved. In the case styled 4477 James Roberts charged with manslaughter, by agreement of both State and Defendant the case will be held until the next term of court. In case styled 4488 James Mcgowan charged with driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverage or drug, the plea was changed to reckless driving and a fine of $110 and court cost imposed. In case 4489 James McGowan charged with manslaughter trial started before a jury and after first witness was called there was a recess. Following the recess the defendant changed his plea to "guilty" and was sentenced to five years imprisonment, suspended sentence and placed on five years probation. In this case McGowan allegedly was guilty of a traffic violation at the intersection at Ramada Inn and ran a red light going at a high rate of speed, hitting one Ramey Harden who died of injuries sustained in the accident. In case 4492 Jerry Johnston was accused of possession of stolen property and plead guilty. He received a fine of $250 and a 6 months sentence to serve in the county jail, sentence suspended. In case 4493 Willie Harmon was charged with possession of stolen property (horse trailer), plead guilty, sentenced to serve two years in penitentiary (suspended sentence) and placed on two years probation. He was required to pay to Buck Cuyler the sum of $300, value of the trailer, and to pay all costs of court.

Questions Status Of Yacht Club

Bea Georgi appeared before the Hancock County Board of Supervisors on Monday to question why the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club is exempt from paying taxes. Mrs. Georgi, when informed non-profit organizations are tax-exempt in Hancock County, responded: "Non-profit? They sell more liquor than most bar rooms! Don't tell me they don't make a profit on it." Mrs. Georgi also pointed out the luncheon and dinner service and said club members were all owners of a share of stock. She said much was out of order at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, including the lack of suitable disposal of sewage. Allegedly the Sanitation Department has given notice to the operators of the club that city sewerage system regulations must be complied with in the very near future or action will be taken. Mrs. Georgi stated that some very fine applicants seeking admission to the Club had been black-balled and added "They are better people than the persons who black-balled them."

Board Approves School Plans

Plans and specifications for the new Waveland Elementary school have been approved by the Bay St. Louis Municipal School Board. The proposed air-conditioned building will house 12 classrooms, offices, faculty lounge, library and cafeteria. These plans must now be sent to the State Board of Education for approval. Fred Wagner, architect for the school, stated that if everything goes well, construction may begin around January 1 and could be completed for opening next September. Estimated cost of the project is between $430,000 and $440,000 but Wagner warned that this was not a definite price.

Anti-Litter Enforcement

There has been a called meeting for Monday afternoon at 8:00 in the office of the City Police for the purpose of instructing all police officers on the methods and tactics to be used in enforcing the anti-litter laws, according to Mayor Warren J. Carver. Carver said: "We are greatly public grounds in this area and we are going to make every effort to continue the Clean-up and KEEP it clean. Officers will be instructed to rigidly enforce the anti-litter ordinance."

OUR OPINION

A BETTER PLACE NEEDED

Lodged in the Hancock County Jail last week were seven people awaiting trial on sundry charges including kidnapping, disturbing the peace, public drunkenness, narcotics possession, jail-escapes, and burglary, according to a police report issued by Deputy R. G. Tartavouille. Also in this jail, but in a separate cell, was a 14-year-old boy, a sixth grade student, and a run-away, according to the report. The youth told officers he left home because he was trouble to his parents and also he was tired of being whipped and beaten by them.

A county jail is hardly the answer to a problem which will eventually become the responsibility of a Family Court. Nor is a County Jail a very fitting place for the safe-keeping of a young out-of-state girl who spent several hours in the jail with only the privacy of a sheet hanging in front of her cell door until she could be returned to her parents. A better answer would be a separate building -- a House of Detention. Such a building was started more than a year ago under the sponsorship of the American Legion whose membership volunteered both funds and labor. A few thousand dollars are still needed for completion of this building.

This paper believes that women and juveniles should not be exposed to hardened criminals such as narcotic peddling, a fix, a drunken man venting his blasphemy and vulgarity, or even a rapist or hold-up artist. We believe the community should rouse itself to the growing need for completing the Detention Center and should concern itself as to ways and means by which this could be accomplished in the immediate future. It is urgent.

Our readers write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
October Clean-up month in Bay St. Louis is half over and we would like to encourage and praise all those people who are working so hard to make it a success. A brief ride through almost any part of town has become a truly pleasant and exciting experience. Everywhere yards are being cut and trimmed, ditches cut, streets cleaned, lots cleared and our spirits lifted.

Thanks to Mr. Tally Rayborn for his guiding hand in coordinating our county wide clean-up efforts, to Mayor Carver who originated the idea and has supervised the efforts in the city, to all the city personnel for their co-operation, to the Echo and Miss Marjorie Maher for the outstanding coverage given to the campaign and to all the groups and organizations who are participating.

Much credit in the city's efforts to clean and beautify public right-of-ways and parks and playgrounds must go to Mr. Felix Seeger. His enthusiasm, energy and knowledge of his job has been a tremendous asset in moving the clean-up campaign forward.

A particular thanks and encouragement is extended to our young people who are participating in group projects all over town cleaning up litter. Good work and keep it up, it's great.

To every individual in Bay St. Louis who is working in his own way to make the city a better place to live, we give a special note of encouragement. You are the city and only your efforts will make this campaign a success.

Let's all continue in our efforts and be determined that we will work together to make Bay St. Louis beautiful.

Mrs. H. R. Robinson
Mrs. Wm. Huffer
Mrs. Paul Vegas
Mrs. Peter Benvenutti
Mayor's Committee for Clean-Up and Beautification.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I wish to thank the Echo and Mr. Neville Jacob for his beautifully expressed open letter to the Editor of October 16 regarding the neglected dogs in the city pound.

In addition to being a fine newspaperman, an outstanding public relations man, Mr. Jacob is also big enough to publicly state that he believes in God, and that he has a conscience.

The stray animals of Bay St. Louis are lucky to have a friend like him.

Yours truly,
MARCELE KENDRICK

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
Before I begin this letter, I wish to state, that it is NOT A COMMITMENT as to how or who I shall vote for Mayor of Waveland, just merely exercising my right as to freedom of expression, and opinion, as to the value and commendable person, we know as Mr. Louis De Salvo. His courageous interpretation of issues, in times like these, having the courage of his convictions and deep reasoning, in re: the values we seem to be losing. I'm trying to have interviews with those who aspire to enter the political "arena", and want to learn as much as I can about each man. I had met Mr. Villars and Mr. Lander and find them to be kind, helpful and honest. I like them both.

Some folks I've met are inclined to cast disparaging remarks against Mr. De Salvo; I was puzzled and wondered how they could be so unkind; after hearing him speak so brilliantly; his belief in God, a devoted family man, his idealistic goals, for easing the strain on old folks, their high taxation; seeing that children and parents obtained a fair deal in education and transportation, attention to roads and drainage; all under our constitutional government. Why can't a man like this be given a fair chance in this game of politics?

Please, don't get me wrong, I'm not campaigning for Mr. De Salvo, only trying to plead for justice, to show a proof of excellent qualities in a person, who deserves a chance. I've learned all things must be proven, before we judge unfairly. While we are trying to banish prejudice and discrimination, let's be impartial about it.

Sincerely,
CLEANOREVEYRETT McFEE

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
Through the months I have followed your coverage of the 1970 United Fund Drive. The cause is worthy. Our entire community benefits and each agency makes a worth while contribution to our area.

It is my sincere hope that the goal of $25,000 for the year will be reached. In any event your informative articles have alerted us. Every person should make a contribution. Those with prosperity, generously; those with adversity, a token. Certainly the United Fund is a community program... the community should participate.

Sincerely,
WARREN J. CARVER, Mayor
City of Bay St. Louis

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

I am a student at Hancock North Central High School and I would like to bring the subject of Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore roads to the attention of the officials of Hancock County.

These roads are unfit for any school bus or automobile to travel. They have holes fully six inches deep and three feet in circumference and this is ruining the school buses, plus the taxpayers' cars.

I, myself, will be voting in about two years and this will certainly play a role in the way I will vote. These roads, in my opinion, are far more important than the proposed Jackson Ridge Recreational Park, because if you don't have the roads fixed and good for driving, how are people going to get there?

It might be the opinion of the Board that there is no rush in getting these roads fixed, but Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore could easily start losing business and potential residents if the roads remain in this deplorable condition.

Riding over these roads is not only uncomfortable, but also unsafe.

I hope the Board will see fit to do something about this problem. Then the kids of this county will be safe and proud.

Yours truly,
Dabe LeFontaine
(Sophomore)

Mrs. Nancy Bufkin

Trick-Or-Treat

For UNICEF

Youth from all dominations in Bay St. Louis are invited to participate in the annual "Trick-Or-Treat for UNICEF" campaign on Halloween night again this year. This is a program carried out by children and youth of the United States to help feed the hungry children of the world. Below is a letter written by President Nixon in support of this program.

Next week further information will be forthcoming as to the schedule of times for collections in the city.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington:
Ever since its founding, UNICEF has enjoyed the full support of the people and Government of the United States. I want to take the opportunity to reaffirm this commitment, and pledge you our continued cooperation in the advancement of your high human goals.

Every day UNICEF proves its interest, concern and tireless devotion to the health and welfare of mothers and their children throughout the world. You sponsor programs for prenatal care. You help train nurses and midwives. You assist governments in providing milk for school lunches. You contribute to the control of diseases and the upgrading of nutritional standards. You offer educational and vocational training. And, when needed, you are always ready to give emergency assistance.

Your work goes on without regard to race or color, without preference for national origin, without prejudice to religious and political beliefs. It is the children and their well-being, you make the soundest investment for future prosperity and peace.

May you have every success in the year ahead. And may the world be better for your noble mission.

A Conservative

by James

It was right on the stroke of 4 o'clock one morning last week when the retired Illinoisan pulled away from 60 South Place in midtown Manhattan. The candidate stretched his legs, put on his glasses, and plunged into a fast study of the day ahead. Then a police car pulled alongside.

"How things look, Jim?" The officer could not have been more than 25--crow-cut, bug-eyed, and five generations of County Cork in his smile. The candidate leaned forward, traded smiles for smiles, and things looked great. "Keep up the good work," said New York's Annot, giving a thumbs-up salute. Then the traffic light changed to go, and one more day on the campaign trail had begun for James L. Buckley.

He is among the most attractive candidates ever to bid for a seat in the United States Senate, and this year's contest in New York ranks one-two-three among the most interesting races in the nation. Buckley is running for the seat about to be left vacant by the incumbent Charles E. Goodell. He is running with charm and conviction.

Can he do it? The odds are surely against him. No independent or third-party candidate has made it to the Senate since George Norris in 1913. Ottinger poured two million dollars into his own successful primary fight; the Democratic nominee reportedly is prepared to throw another million into this general election. Party allegiance in this country is dying slowly, but it dies hard; the well-oiled and experienced major organizations will roll out heavy party-label votes for both Ottinger and Goodell.

Yet Buckley has a great deal going for him. He has Clifton White, for one thing, and White is a pro in the game of campaign management. Buckley himself is no amateur: He managed brother Bill's campaign for Mayor of New York in 1965; he rolled up an astonishing 1.1 million votes in his own campaign for the Senate two years ago; and he now meets the voters with a Kennedy charisma that makes old ladies giggle and young ones roll their eyes.

Buckley has other political assets. He has the endorsement of both police and firemen in New York; Democrat Mario Procaccino and Republican John Marchi, their parties' candidates for Mayor last year, have plumped in his corner. He got a big boost ten days ago when the respected Rochester De-

FREE TREES!

Ten thousand to be exact. The Mississippi Forestry Commission is donating 10,000 free trees to the area in the Bay-St. Louis area. The trees are being planted in the area of the Bay-St. Louis area. The trees are being planted in the area of the Bay-St. Louis area.

The free trees will be given out on a first come first serve basis so be sure and get your name on the list now by calling the County Agent's office. If Camille left your yard almost treeless, take advantage of this opportunity afforded you by the Mississippi Forestry Commission to replace the trees you lost.

Since most of the trees lost in this area were pines, all the thousand free trees will be pine seedlings ready to plant. The trees are being planted in the area of the Bay-St. Louis area.

For further information contact County Forestry Miss. Hank Dry or County Agent John Smith. State Forester Wendell Leach has expanded its forestry services to include an Urban Forestry Program. Included in the program will be technical advice to city dwellers on the care of their shade trees.

The State Agency will also work with city planners, when requested, in the selection and care of trees for beautification and other environmental uses.

Subdivisions of 4 or 5 or more may obtain advice from the Commission in preservation of existing trees when developing streets and leveling land. The new program will place emphasis on information and education activities. It will include talks to civic clubs and urban youth groups in addition to providing helpful tree care information through the news media.

Persons wishing urban forestry advice should contact Miss. Forestry Commission.

Jerry M. Bourgeois

Jerry Michael Bourgeois, Sr., 53, died Thursday at his residence in Bay St. Louis.

A native of Waveland, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Essie Bourgeois of Gulfport; three sons, Jerry Michael Bourgeois Jr., Waveland, Miss.; Gary Bourgeois and David Bourgeois, Gulfport; a daughter, Miss Susan Bourgeois, Gulfport; three brothers, Clarence and Warren Bourgeois, New Orleans, and Leland Bourgeois, Waveland, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Guehard Jr., Waveland.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, officiating was Rev. Bernard Walton, pastor Main Street United Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in Waveland Cemetery.

Mrs. Beulah Larson

Gravestone services for Mrs. Beulah Edna Larson, 96, were held Friday morning at Evergreen Gardens, Gulfport. Paul R. Smilie, reader, First Church of Christ, Scientist, Gulfport, conducted the service.

Mrs. Larson died at 12:30 a.m., Thursday, October 15, at Gulfport Nursing Home. A native of Waveland, Mrs. Larson resided in Pascagoula prior to moving to Bay St. Louis 10 years ago. She was a Christian Scientist.

Survivors are a grandson, Albert T. Rice, Gulfport; and a granddaughter, Mrs. D. L. Perkins, Lafayette, La.

men's Liberation has to Bay St. Louis. It is not in the form of irate lives or career girls debut in the form of Carla y, an 18 year-old girl

the new dogcatcher of Louis.

word dogcatcher im-ly conjures up images of light-lipped, rather crot-old man who travels town stealing small pup-om children. These cons do not apply to Carla not only these animals but for all animals. She stressed the fact that all animals are val-come at the pound, not just dogs. "Animals have always been very important to me.

I can't understand why anyone wouldn't want to help." And help is what Carla needs. "I am asking any civic or church group or any individual who wants to do something for these dogs to come to the pound and help.
There is a lot of work to be done." "There's something I don't understand," Carla added,
"people get so caught up in doing THINGS that they forget the basic needs in the world. I know the ecology movement is important but when things like a dog pound are neglected, it's like painting the outside of your house, but leaving the inside dirty."

Carla has already received strange reactions from people when they learned that the new dogcatcher is a SHE not a HE.
"The first thing they say is,
'Why would a girl want a job
like that?'" Carla comments,
"I expect some criticism and a lot of surprise but I'm capable of doing the work and I'm really interested in helping. That's the important thing, isn't it?"

Carla Mykleby doesn't look like a representative of the Women's Liberation movement.
She's not a girl wanting to do a man's job. She is simply a person who cares about something other than herself. And after all, as Carla put it, "That's the important thing, isn't it?"

Fire Department

Asks Assistance

The East Hancock County

Volunteer Fire Department today made a plea for help through increased membership, boosters, and simply "friendly donations", according to Fire Chief Edw. E. Friloux, Sr.

Friloux said "To build and properly equip a home made fire engine would cost $3,955.70.

Few people realize the cost of fire fighting equipment, according to Terry Holmes who submitted substantiating figures showing the cost of a fire helmet at $22.00, a fire turn-out coat at $36.00 and fire boots at $17.00.

The cost of a pick head axe or a flat head axe runs $7.85 each; fire beaters are $8.00 each; Ceiling Hooks run $10.00 each; hydrant keys are at $6.00 each. These items and much more equipment is greatly needed by the Volunteers,
Friloux said.

Round The Kiln

By Claire Mitchell

Annunciation boys football team will journey to Mobile, Alabama on Saturday to play St. Mary's. A motorcade will leave Annunciation School at 8:30 a.m. and will return at approximately 6 p.m. Lunch will be provided by St. Mary's. All interested persons should contact Wootley Egan at 497-0000.

Got well wishes go to Scott Bonnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Bonnett. Scott mended his finger very badly and had to be rushed to Methodist Hospital in New Orleans on Sunday.

Birthday greetings go to Sharon Mitchell on October 12th.

Teen Times

The Bay Youth Center elected its officers for 1970-1971. Tom Flynn was elected president; vice-president, Betty Johnson; secretary, Lisa White; treasurer, Ed Favre. The board members are Richard Johnson; Jos de Benvenuti; David Koger; Chip Blanchard and Sam Piazza. He invites everyone to come to our meetings on Wednesdays at 8:15.

Congratulations to the Bay Senior High Tigers for winning their game against the St. Stanislaus, Rock-a-chaws, 6-0. We also want to congratulate the Bay Jr. High, Tigers, for winning their game against the St. Stanislaus, Rock-a-chaws, 47-14.

The youth group at the First Baptist Church is going to present the musical "Life" from October 25 to 28.

The Teen Center will have a dance on Saturday, November 7, 1970.

Bay High Gardeners

Under the direction of Marty Hearn, the Garden Club is participating in the high school program of the county-wide clean-up and anti-litter campaign during the month of October.

This is to be the beginning of a year long project for the club as plans are for continued efforts in cleanup and beautification.

In a project begun last year the group will plant trees in the area surrounding the school as well as maintain their garden in rear of school, and plans are to landscape entrance when covered walkway is completed. Some other activities to take place are a Christmas flower show, workshops, therapy program. Arbor day observance, conservation program and field trips.

MISS MOLL HONORED

The bayon home of Miss Moll Kelly was the setting Saturday for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Linda Moll, bride-elect of Ronald Cuevas.

Little Allen Lewis and Beth Wilson, dressed as bride and groom, greeted Miss Moll upon arrival.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Hall and family.

Hostesses for the event were Miss Edna Kelly and Mrs. Jim Kelly. Decorations were by Mrs. Betty Lewis.

A warm welcome to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradford.

Percy Gaudin, president of the H.N.C. Quarterback Club, requests that Pearlington supporters, parents and friends of the H.N.C. Hawks join and attend the regular Tuesday night meetings of the Club at 7:30 p.m. held at H.N.C. in the cafeteria.

Happy birthday wishes to Bucky Reynolds, who will celebrate his birthday on October 24th.

The lovely Jacksonville Drive home of Mrs. Bill Gonterman was the setting, last Thursday, for the weekly meeting of the Oak Harbor Bridge Club. Those attending were Mrs. James Bruce, Walter Hardee, Ed Snow, B. S. Stewart, Lawrence Boone, Joe Nettles, Sr., and John Krauss.

First high for the game was Mrs. Gonterman. Mrs. Stewart was second high.

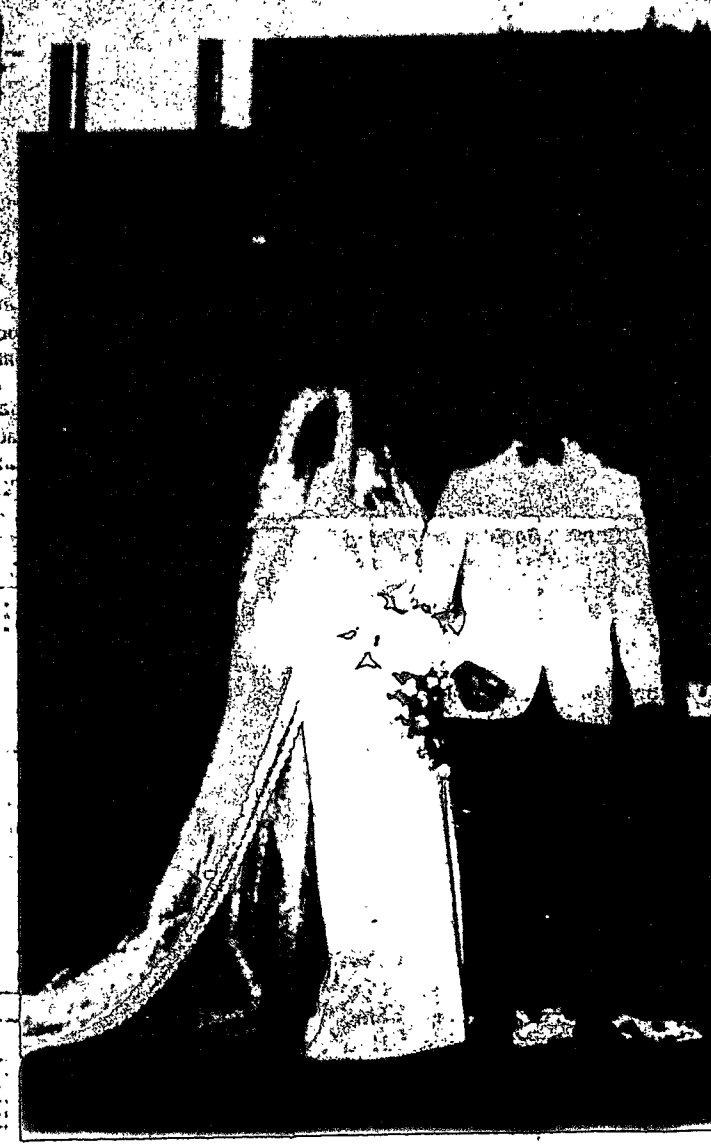

Refreshments of Peach-Almond torte, coffee, colas and an assortment of chips and dips were served.

Visitors in our home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wadsworth and children, Mark and Chira and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hill and daughter, Nancy all of Ellisville, Mississippi.

Happy birthday wishes are extended to Mrs. Max Page, who celebrated her birthday on Tuesday, October 13th.

The annual Halloween Carnival is only 9 days away and donations are still needed. You have any candy, dishes, trinkets, etc. that you would like to donate please call Gladys Barber, at 533-7737 or Ruth Davis, 533-7398.

Ellene Douglas' name was accidentally omitted from the list of cheerleaders at Murphy School in last week's column.

Ceremony Unites Necaise-Ladner

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the setting for the wedding at 7:30 p.m. on September 25th of Miss Alice Marie Necaise, daughter of Mr. Cloda Necaise and Billy Lynn Ladner son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Ladner, all of Route 1, Pass Christian.

Miss Amy Smith played the traditional wedding march. Rev. William Volar performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with Empire waist and Princess lines with a train of trailing illusion lace. Her finger tip veil fell from a large white satin bow. She carried a bouquet of trailing white carnations and streamers.

Miss Elsie Necaise served as maid of honor and Judy Necaise as bridesmaid, both sisters of the bride. Miss Kayleen Ladner served as Jr. bridesmaid with Imelda Ladner as flower girl.

Gravol Ladner served his brother as best man with E.J. Spiers as groomsman. Jimmy Necaise served as junior groomsman with David Barnett as ring bearer.

Ushers were Kermit Ladner and Carl Smith.

All attendants of the bride wore yellow A-line dresses with headpieces to match. They carried bouquets of a large bronze mum.

Presiding at the punch table were Debbie Barnett and Rita Spiers with Mrs. Rush Ladner serving the wedding cake.

Miss Rita Spiers presided at the bride's register.

The mother of the groom wore a turquoise dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a pink chiffon dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans the couple will reside in Dadeaux Community.

Mr. Ladner presently attends University of Southern Mississippi.

Funds May Be Available To Complete Center

In a Tuesday morning interview Lucien Kidd, advisor in Hancock County for the Division of Law Enforcement Assistance Regional Planning Council of District 4, said he felt that Federal funds might still be available for completing the Detention Center now under construction and located just behind the County Jail.

Kidd said application was made for $10,000 some time ago and a token check in the amount of $3,500 had been received. Since that time, Kidd stated, other cities have received $50,000 in one case and $105,000 in another for the purpose of up-grading the law enforcement divisions.

"We have an average of 300 juvenile cases a year," Kidd stated and there is no place to put these offenders," Kidd said it cost the county a minimum of $40 to transport to the Harrison County Facility juvenile cases since the law requires that two deputies accompany each car used in the transport.

Gono J. Rogers, program specialist, in a letter addressed to Kidd stated his application for additional funds was being considered. Kidd said it would take between $3,000 and $7,500 to complete the Detention Center in a satisfactory manner and that a social worker full time was needed. "These young people need help," Kidd stated and added they were picked up for just all kinds of problems such as drugs, alcohol, breaking curfew, shoplifting, etc. Kidd said juveniles should not be placed in a jail with hardened criminals, nor should women be. "We are working toward finding an answer to this problem," he declared and added: "If this application doesn't work out, we'll find another way."

Hardin Shattuck is an advisor working with Kidd; and Charles Russ III is representative for Hancock County.

State Health Board Ready For Influenza Season

The State Board of Health is ready for the influenza season, but Dr. Durward L. Blahoy, director of the agency's Division of Preventable Diseases Control, said he does not anticipate heavy outbreaks.

"We have distributed some 100,000 doses of vaccine to the county health departments," said Dr. Blahoy. "and this is for those enrolled in our programs. It is not an over-the-counter item. You can't just walk in and get it."

Dr. Blahoy said influenza "is the largest single precipitant of untimely illness and death among the chronically ill, the debilitated and the aged—those over 65, even if characteristically healthy."

He said the vaccine distributed by the State Board of Health is primarily for those high-risk groups. As a general rule, said Dr. Blahoy, "we do not advocate widespread, routine vaccination of the healthy—either child or adult. However, business and professional groups whose essential functions would be impaired by influenza outbreaks are advised to consider offering vaccination to employees and staff."

The U.S. Public Health Service Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices has issued the following recommendations regarding those who should be vaccinated for influenza:

"(1) Congenital and rheumatic heart diseases, especially mitral stenosis.

"(2) Cardiovascular disorders, such as arteriosclerosis and hypertensive heart disease, particularly with evidence of cardiac insufficiency.

"(3) Chronic bronchopulmonary diseases, such as asthma, chronic bronchitis, cystic fibrosis, bronchiectasis, emphysema and advanced tuberculosis.

"(4) Diabetes mellitus and other chronic metabolic disorders."

"Run-Aways" Apprehended

Reports from the Sheriff's Department last week indicated six boys and one girl between the ages of 14 to 17 years were apprehended as "run-aways" from Jackson. The young people, all in one car, were picked up at Phillips 66 on Highway 90 and returned to Jackson, Don McIntire of the Waveland Police Department and Deputy R. G. Tartavouille handled the matter, impounding the automobile at a garage on the Old Spanish Trail.

Election Managers

Managers for the voting boxes in Waveland for the November 3rd election have been assigned: 1st Ward, Paul Benley, Joseph Griffin, and Charles Dickson; 2nd Ward, Sam Tartavouille, P.R.O.; 3rd Ward, Norvin Penrose, Bert Stieff and Vernon Ladner; 4th Ward, Old Spanish Trail, Pete Noto is the P.R.O.

LUGIS NECAISE ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION AS TRUSTEE DISTRICT THREE, HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

I served three years as Trustee for the 3rd district school, and since the reorganization of our school system have served the past 17 years as Trustee which is a long time. This makes me the oldest serving member on the School Board. I have always felt it my duty to serve the people during those many years and have always felt it my duty to continue to do so. I am proud to have accomplished the greatest progress of all time in the Hancock County School District. Let me familiarize you of the progress of the Hancock County School District during the years I served on the Board of Trustees of District Three:

First I added two class rooms, a Principal's Office, and additional space to Calhoun School. Next, we added four new classrooms to Hancock North Central, including a football field, complete with bleachers, lights, etc. A new modern 6 classroom building at Pearlington, a large modern double water well. We followed with a new 8 classroom expansion at Calhoun, also a new water well, a modern large collection of equipment to take care of the school. As a recent board meeting, I requested to build a High School at Calhoun. I took care of the Students in the Southern part of the County as they take care of the students in the Northern part of the County. Hancock County School, and the motion was passed. This new High School at Calhoun will contain all modern equipment and facilities including a large football field and all the necessary additions to make this one of the schools in the state and will accommodate students from Pearlington, Calhoun, Clermont, surrounding Subdivisions and rural areas. I also seconded the motion to build a gym at Pearlington, and we have added 8 new classrooms at Hancock North Central. I might add that Reginal Moran for the High School and we have just made some new school buses. These buses added to our present number will give us the finest school buses any school system could possibly have.

ALL THE ABOVE HAS BEEN ACHIEVED DURING MY ADMINISTRATION HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

I humbly ask the people of the Hancock County School District, DON'T YOU THINK I HAVE FULFILLED MY DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS TO YOU AS A SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER? THERE ARE NO PROMISES THAT CAN COMPARE WITH DEFINITE ACTIONS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS!

I would like very much to continue serving you, the people -- so please vote for me, Lugis Necaise, on November 3rd.

IRS Raids Establishments In Four Miss. Counties

Special Agents of the Internal Revenue Division, and investigators of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the Internal Revenue Service, raided thirty-four business establishments in four North Mississippi counties Tuesday afternoon and seized 62 pinball coin-operated machines which were being operated in violation

Will Accept Feeder Pigs

Agriculture Commissioner Jack Buck Ross announced today Mississippi's governor has agreed to accept the program as a major feeder pig market for the state's farmers.

"As a result of going three months without a confirmed case of hog cholera, word was received today that feeder pigs from Mississippi may move into the State of Indiana," said Ross, chairman of the Mississippi Board of Animal Health.

A wire received by Dr. Vernon O. Chadwick, Mississippi State Veterinarian, from Dr. David L. Smith, Indiana's State Veterinarian, reads: "Indiana will accept feeder pigs from State-Federal approved markets in Mississippi on or 10-14-70."

Dr. Chadwick said, "Indiana and other states had placed a ban on Mississippi's feeder pigs last April after severe hog cholera outbreaks in Mississippi."

"This is the first major breakthrough for our control program," Ross said.

Dr. Chadwick stated, "Indiana officials lifted this ban only after careful study of Mississippi's regulations and after observing our record over a three-month period."

"With continued success in eradicating hog cholera, other states should soon follow Indiana in allowing Mississippi feeder pigs into their state," Dr. Chadwick said.

of the Internal Revenue laws. L. L. Furr, Chief of the IRS Intelligence Division, said the machines were seized because they are equipped with features and characteristics of a gaming device and Internal Revenue laws and regulations require that a $250 special tax stamp be purchased prior to placing such a machine in operation. Furr stated that it was determined prior to the raid that the special tax stamps required by the law had not been purchased by the operators. According to Furr, each machine is subject to seizure whether or not evidence exists as to actual payment on the machine.

The seized machines were stored in warehouses at Greenwood and Clarksdale where they will remain while forfeiture proceedings are brought by the Government.

Mr. Furr said additional raids will be placed, when necessary, in order to obtain voluntary compliance with IRS laws throughout the State.

The following places were included in the raids: Cozy Inn, Phillips 35-55 Truck Stop, and Shell Truck Stop all of Vicksburg; Joe's Place, Ole Rebel, and Kirk's Place all of Wiggins; Mine Truck Stop, Mine One Stop, and Turkey Village all of Highway 82 East, Greenwood; Chicken Inn, 7-31 Gulf Station, Hide A Way Tavern, Rainbow Tavern, Railroad Lunch Counter, City Pool Room, Lewis P o o l Hall, S i Pool Room, Walker's Cafe, Neely's Sandwich Shop, Irving Hotel, and Granada Courts all of Grenada; Southaven Recreation Center, Ann's Restaurant & Lounge, Jo's Restaurant, The Pizza Place, Railway Billiards, and Victoria Lounge all of Southaven; Perotto's Grocery of Horn Lake; Ferguson's Grocery of Lake Cormacost; Town & Country Truck Stop & Grocery, and Harrison & Son Pool Room, both of Walla; Ryals Grocery, Fab's Domino Parlor, Delta Amusement Parlor, and Mackay's Lake Store all of Clarksdale.

Will Re-Organize Library Group

Mrs. Jos. E. Viguerie, president of the organization known as "Friends of the Library", announces there will be a re-organization and election meeting of the group on Thursday afternoon, October 29, at the Webb Center. Prior to Hurricane Camille, more than 52 people in the Bay-Waveland area were members of the Library Group. So many members were directly affected by the storm until this is the first meeting since that time.

Mrs. Viguerie said the meeting has been called for three purposes: (1) re-organization (2) election of officers (3) financial and business decisions. Mrs. Viguerie said there were funds lying dormant which, if voted upon, favorably could be used to beautify the area in front of the City County Library. This work would be done in conjunction with the Bay-Waveland Garden Club beautification project which includes this facility. All interested persons are cordially invited to attend the re-organizational meeting whether or not they are members. There will be a special hour following the business session and coffee will be served.

Assigns Investigator To Forest Commission

Ford O'Neal, former Stone County Sheriff and Criminal Investigator with the State Highway Patrol, has been assigned as an Investigating Officer for the Mississippi Forestry Commission, according to State Forester Wendell Lock of Jackson.

Lock said that O'Neal will work primarily on woods arson and public land timber theft cases. He will be available to work on special assignment in all areas of the state when needed.

"We are determined to bring some of these habitual criminal woods arsonists to justice," declared the State Forester, "and we are fortunate to be able to employ a man with the extensive investigative experience that O'Neal has to bolster our effectiveness in this endeavor."

Lock disclosed that woods arsonists caused about two and one-half million dollars in damage to Mississippi timberland last year.

Named Chairman

Mrs. Theo Tudury, Hancock County March of Dimes Chairman, announced the appointment of John D. Rutherford Jr. as Hancock County fund raising chairman for the 1971 March of Dimes Drive and Kathy Johnson, Teenage chairman.

Other chairmen will be named at a meeting to be held in the near future, Mrs. Tudury added.

Mrs. Tudury said the local chapter awarded four scholarships to local girls this year, they were Misses Ann Perkins, Debbie Weidman, Peggy Hietzmann and Vicki McCaleb.

Now U.S. Citizen

Neville Roy Jacobs of Bay St. Louis, formerly of Canada, was among 40 who became citizens of the United States Thursday morning during naturalization ceremonies conducted in U.S. District Judge Walter L. Nixon Jr.'s court in Biloxi.

STAN FAIRCONNETT, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Fairconnatue and grandson of Katler F. Saucier all of Bay St. Louis, Miss., will study at the University of Paris (Sorbonne) for the academic year 1970-1971. He is completing degree work begun at Rutgers University, New Jersey.

WILLIAM A. COLMER SEEKS RE-ELECTION to CONGRESS

Congressman Bill Colmer, of the 5th Congressional District of Mississippi, today announced his candidacy for re-election in the November 3 general election.

Bill Colmer has served in the Congress of the United States longer than any Mississippian in the history of the State. He is the third-ranking Member of the House of Representatives, where seniority is the most potent asset a Congressman can have for the benefit of his constituents and the country. By virtue of the fact that the people of South Mississippi have kept him in Congress these many years, he four years ago became Chairman of the powerful Rules Committee of the House of Representatives. All important and controversial legislation reported by other committees must first be approved by the Rules Committee for consideration by the House.

He is the senior member of the National Forest Reservation Commission, consisting of two Members of the House, two Members of the Senate, and three members of the President's Cabinet. During World War II, Congressman Colmer served as Chairman of the Post-War Economic Policy and Planning Committee, which made recommendations for converting from a war-time to a peace-time economy with the least possible adverse effect. In connection with this study, he represented the Congress in the study of the European post-war effect on the U.S. economy. This resulted in interviews with the leaders of thirteen countries, including Stalin, Churchill, the Pope and others. On his return from the European trip in late August 1945, Chairman Colmer blue-printed to President Truman and the Congress the cold war planned by the Communists and carried out since then.

He is regarded as one of the leaders of the conservative group in the Congress. For many years, his colleagues have honored him by making him chairman of the southern group in opposition to radical legislation aimed at the South. Congressman Colmer has received numerous awards from national patriotic, non-profit organizations such as the George Washington Good Government Society, Americans for Constitutional Action, and the Order of Lafayette, an organization dedicated to opposing Communism in America. Just recently, he was given, for the fifth time, the Watchdog of the Treasury award by the National Associated Businessmen for his voting record against deficit spending and for fiscal responsibility. The Masonic body has recognized the Congressman with its highest honor, the 33rd Degree.

In announcing his candidacy for re-election, the veteran Congressman said, "I am deeply appreciative of the support that my people have given me throughout the years. I have honestly and sincerely tried to represent my people and my country to the best of my ability. In these crucial times, I feel that I can be of service to both my people and my country in the next Congress."

Excellent apples are available now in most supermarkets and there are so many tempting recipes in which to use them. Grapes seem at their best during this season. Small bunches of seedless grapes make a nice addition to almost any meal. Have you prepared a Waldorf salad recently? Mrs. Nunez Raymond of Port Isaac, Texas shares her recipe.

Books Missing from Library

Missing from the shelves of City-County Public Library are some reference books and a few out-of-print books, according to Mrs. Watson Prindiville, coordinator for that institution. Mrs. Prindiville said it was almost the rules of the library anyone to check-out a reference book, however, tables are provided for those wishing to use this material. She also noted that Library Open House has been made flexible to accommodate students and workers.

Seeking the cooperation of library users, Mrs. Prindiville asks those who have inadvertently taken reference material from the library to return these books so they may be used by all students on an equitable basis. "Students coming in to the library simply loaded down with books," explained Mrs. Prindiville, "and it is easy to understand how they could get a reference book mixed up with their school books. All we ask is that these books be returned to the desk, or simply to them in the Book Drop located in front of the library."

Church Choir Will Present "LIFE"

"LIFE", a "Young World" musical by Otis Skillings, will be presented here in Bay St. Louis by the "Life Choir" of the First Baptist Church. This group of dedicated young musicians has worked diligently for several months in preparation for the premiere date. The group, very strong, is under the direction of Ronnie Hauge, Director of Music and Youth at the First Baptist Church. Otis Skillings, talented writer and arranger for the world's touring group, The Ripples, brings to life many of the questions about the Christian Life, and answers in an enthusiastically it is not to get involved in the musical.

The presentation scheduled for Sunday, October 25th at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, will be the beginning of a touring season for the choir covering a four-state tour. Hauge, the Director, says, "This Musical will delight the eye, shock the ear, involve the heart, and inspire some. Anyone who walks into the midst of this enthusiastic young people certainly will get a different sense of what a promise." The public is invited and urged to attend this performance.

2 tablespoons frozen orange juice
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup coarsely chopped nuts
Peel and slice or chop apples; and celery and marshmallows. Combine orange juice, mayonnaise and sour cream; add nuts. Mix all ingredients together and serve in crisp lettuce cups.
Apples have a tendency to turn dark quickly when they are peeled. To prevent this, squeeze a little lemon juice over the fruit as it is being prepared. The slightly acid flavor improves the fruit in appearance as well as taste.
Requests have come in for recipes for Hot Fruit Curry and for the French Salad dressing in which canned tomato soup is used. Here they are:

Hot Fruit Curry
1 can Alberta Peaches
1 can Apricot halves
1 can Pineapple chunks
10 or 12 preserved figs
2 sliced bananas (dip bananas in lemon juice to prevent discoloration)
1 doz cherries
1 stick margarine
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon curry powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Drain fruit and arrange in a pan. (We use a Pyrex 9 x 13 x 2) Crumble margarine over fruit. Combine sugar and spices and sprinkle over fruit. Bake about 20-25 minutes in slow oven approximately 325 degrees.
Tomato Soup French Dressing
2 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 can Tomato soup
1/2 cup can of Vinegar
1/2 cup can salad oil
2 tablespoons minced onion.
Combine dry ingredients in a quart jar; add remaining ingredients. Shake well. Store in refrigerator until needed.

This is fire-prevention week. Let's do our part by selecting for our children Halloween costumes that are not flammable. If candles are used in Jack O'Lanterns children should be cautioned against risks. Better yet have you considered buying the plastic Jack O'Lanterns that come equipped with flash light? They are under the trade name LIGHT UP PUMPKIN and are manufactured by Tico-Toys, Inc.

Occasionally the most careful of cooks will experience a grease fire. When this happens flames can be smothered by throwing baking soda at the base of the fire. Another good use for soda: when placed in automobile ash trays it will absorb the stale and disagreeable odor of cigarette butts, and at the same time snuffs out cigarettes safely. Three tablespoons of soda dissolved in a quart of water is an excellent solution for cleaning your refrigerator. It deodorizes without chemical odors.

Amway Silver Anti-Tarnish Polish is highly recommended. It cleans and polishes both sterling and silverplate. Easy to apply and it looks out tarnish for a period of about six months. Are you a user of "Terri"? These disposable towels are reinforced with nylon and rayon netting and are four layers thick. So strong that one sheet does as much as three or four conventional paper towels. Try them. You'll be glad you did. MANKIND, the magazine of popular history, has beautifully printed in Boulder, Colorado and is a monthly magazine.

Junior Colleges Evaluated In New SREB Publication

Community colleges help break down economic and academic barriers to higher education, but uneven development of these schools in the South has kept many students from entering college, the Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) reported today.

"Community colleges do increase educational opportunities beyond high school, but there is a great deal of difference from state to state in the development of community colleges," reports Dr. James L. Wattenbarger in a new SREB publication, "Effective Use of Resources in State Higher Education."

"There is apparently a very unequal opportunity for education in the states of the region," the director of the University of Florida's Institute of Higher Education concludes.

"These differences were found in a survey of 14 Southern states -- appear in the relationship of community colleges to the total population (from 1 in 62 to 1 in 849 persons) and in the relationship of community colleges to the total enrollment in higher education (from 1.5 percent to 44.1 percent)."

Dr. Wattenbarger's evaluation, "Community Colleges: A Friendly Critique," is issued at a time when junior colleges are experiencing their period of greatest growth. From 1960 to 1970, appropriations in 14 Southern states for junior colleges gained by 888 percent compared to 100 percent for bachelor's institutions, 200 percent for doctor's institutions, and 220 percent for master's level institutions.

On a per student basis, two-year colleges received $491 per student in 1969 compared to $255 per student in 1961, a 93 percent increase. During this period, doctoral institutions received 42 percent more per student in 1969 than in 1961.

The community college movement in the South began 20 years ago, although the greatest growth has taken place in the last ten years. Florida now has 27 of 28 planned community colleges in operation; North Carolina 50 at the post-high school level; Virginia plans an entire system of community colleges with more than half of the 23 planned now in operation; Tennessee currently has nine; Texas has six new institutions for a total of 42; Georgia 13; Alabama 17; Mississippi 19; and Maryland 13.

Even though community college growth in the South is keeping with national rates of development, there are wide differences in community college attendance opportunities within the states of the SREB region. Florida is the only SREB state which has a larger proportion of its population in community colleges than is true of the nation as a whole (1:65 compared to 1:110). Other SREB states range up to as high as one student in every 889 persons.

Dr. Wattenbarger finds evidence to indicate that the availability of community colleges increases a state's student attendance rates in college. "In 1968," he reports, "Florida enrolled 46 percent of its college-age population in colleges while Georgia enrolled 29 percent. In Florida, 44 percent of the total college enrollment was in community colleges while in Georgia only 11 percent was in community colleges. A cause and effect relationship may be assumed."

Although several other SREB states report ratios of college attendance equally as high as Florida's -- for example, Texas and Maryland -- none has increased as rapidly. Since 1960 no had Florida, and none has as high a proportion of community college students as Florida.

In addition to the need for community colleges to be available equally to all the region's students, there is a need for special training courses for community college faculty and for special counseling courses for community college students.

Studies of junior college faculty indicate that they come from other levels of education, from the military, business, and industry, but that few are directly prepared for junior college teaching. There is little success to be pointed out at present regarding community college faculty preservice preparation.

Although counseling has been repeatedly described as a major function of the community college, Wattenbarger finds only one state of the 14 SREB states to be anywhere near offering adequate counseling services in community colleges. In fact, one state in the region has refused to provide financial support for counselors in the community college budget.

"It seems unlikely based on evidence available that counseling and guidance programs currently in operation in community colleges could be considered adequate for community college students," Dr. Wattenbarger says.

To help states in the region develop community college programs which will insure equality of higher education opportunity for students in the state and for states in the region, adoption of several planning and coordination techniques as suggested.

Development of adequate and accurate information concerning the impact of junior colleges on the communities they serve.

Definition of commonly accepted terms for use in data collection and analysis.

Inclusion of community colleges in role and scope planning for a statewide system of higher education, with community colleges being considered only as two-year institutions and not as potential four-year institutions.

Planning for articulation between institutions with specific programs and agreements resulting.

SREB President Winfred L. Godwin reports that states need a carefully thought out system of immediate post-high school education which permits individuals to finish technical or vocational programs, to complete two-year academic programs, or to transfer from two-year academic programs into senior colleges or universities.

"Coordinating boards or agencies can do much to plan postsecondary programs which will avoid unnecessary duplication among junior colleges, vocational-technical schools, and four-year colleges," President Godwin said.

"The multipurpose, two-year junior or community college is the most important education concept developed in America in this generation, a brilliant American invention."

"In our region, junior colleges can be a force for giving students a sense of reality, for forging new identities and occupations in a community, and for avoiding isolation and alienation."

State Sales Tax Collection Increases

Led by an increase of 13.6 percent in state sales tax collections, seven of Mississippi's ten economic indicators showed favorable activity during the months of August and September when compared to activity during the same months in 1969.

According to the report in the monthly NEWS BULLETIN of the Mississippi Economic Council, state sales tax collections in August totaled $18.7 million, which is an increase of $2.2 million over the August 1969 figure.

The second greatest advance was recorded in the area of bank deposits with an increase of 11.2 percent. When comparing August figures, bank deposits climbed from a total of $2.1 billion to $2.4 billion.

One indicator recording a negative percentage change was industrial gas consumption. Consumption fell off 2.3 per

Drug Education Program Launched

Students in the University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy have launched a program in drug education designed for presentation to high school assemblies and civic clubs.

The group, consisting mostly of senior men and women, indicated the program themselves and were advised in organization and techniques by a similar group from the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy.

"We started by speaking to a group of doctors," Wilcox, and the response was so good we decided to continue," explained co-chairman Mike Shibley of New Madrid, Mo.

At present the Ole Miss students number about a dozen but expect to expand to 20 many as 30 in the near future.

The program involves a presentation on benefits from proper use of drugs as well as hazards from improper use. It is a joint effort of the School of Pharmacy Student Body and the student chapter of the Mississippi Pharmaceutical Association.

Serving with Shibley as co-chairman is Sam Daniel of McComb. President of the student pharmaceutical association is Pat Miller of Gulfport; Larry Morgan of Tupelo is president of the Pharmacy Association.

FISH THE COOL SPOTS

Fishing is the only sport in the world when finding a cool spot may mean you've found a "hot spot."

Most anglers look to traditional "hot spots" for their summer success, when in reality they should be searching out those cool, shaded places where fish find life more pleasant.

And a likely place to find such an area is to check the back ends of coves where water is shallow. For here, by mid-summer, water plants such as algae and moss have developed a thick, spongy layer that serves as a water conditioner for fish.

A common theory brought to the attention of the fishing department at Mercury outboards, is that water is cooler beneath such layers of plant life. For one thing, the water is shaded from direct rays of the sun. Another thought is that the plants act as an evaporating cooler for the water underneath. Whatever the reason, these thick beds of water plants are good places to fish.

Tempting a bass or pike out of a cool spot beneath the moss isn't easy. One method is to use a pork rind frog with a single weedless hook. (Another popular lure is a sponge rubber frog or mouse, with double hooks imbedded in the lure to prevent their being clogged by algae or moss. The weedless feature is important.)

Cast the lure into the middle of the weedbed. Let it sit a minute, and then begin hopping it along on top of the moss. Stop every few feet, then begin the retrieve again.

When almost to the edge of the weed bed, give the lure several short, quick hops, hop it into the water and then let the line go slack. This simulates the action of a frog jumping into the water and then gliding along without kicking.

If your boat is in the weed bed, the lads at Mercury suggest that you never give up the retrieve technique until the lure is in the boat. A big bass will often follow a part frog right up to the boat before deciding to take it for supper.

August with an addition of 3,600 employees over the figures posted in August 1969.

Other indicators showing advances in the MEC publication include:

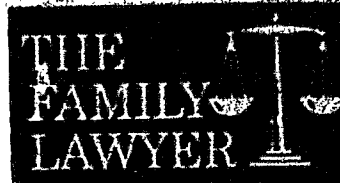

Total state tax collections by the State Tax Commission with an increase of 7.2 percent, or a total dollar advance of $1.9 million.

Total telephone service and gasoline tax collections showed advances of 6.5 percent and 6.3 percent respectively. Comparing August figures, total telephones in service went up 49,807, while a comparison of September figures shows gasoline tax collections moving up a total of $352,980.

An increase of 0.6 percent was recorded in non-agricultural employment in School Student Body. "We're not preaching any sermons; we have no axe to grind," said Daniel. "We are simply dealing with facts."

Their first program at Lafayette High School will be followed by an assembly at Amory High School. Clubs and schools interested in arranging for the presentation should contact the Bureau of Pharmaceutical Services at Ole Miss.

"Found" Life Insurance Policy

When a man dies leaving life insurance, notice of his death should of course be given to the insurance company.

But suppose the family simply doesn't know the policy exists. If they find out about it weeks, months, or even years later, could they still collect? Or have they lost their rights because of the delay?

Insurance policies usually say that the notice of death must be given "immediately" or promptly. Sometimes they even fix a specific number of days as a limit. Nevertheless, most courts are willing to overlook this requirement if there is a reasonable excuse for the delay.

In one case, a woman had never been told about an insurance policy bought by her husband's employer. Several months after his death, she happened to find out about the insurance—and put in her claim at once.

Even though the policy called for "immediate" notice of death, the court held she could still collect. The judge said "immediate" in these circumstances, meant right after she learned of the policy's existence.

On the other hand, courts do

GIVE-UP YOUR SHARE

recognize the importance of promptness to the insurance company. The company should have a fair chance, if it so desires, to inquire into the cause of death before too much time has gone by.

Accordingly, a delay due to negligence will not be excused. One widow just didn't bother to go through the "junk drawer" in which many of the family papers were kept. When she finally found an insurance policy there, years later, her claim was turned down because of her own negligence.

Even if there is a legitimate excuse, the delay may be so extreme that the policy will lapse anyhow. Take this case:

An insurance company was startled to receive a claim for a death that had occurred 11 years earlier. The widow did have a plausible explanation for her tardiness, but a court ruled she could not collect anyhow.

"Witnesses may have died, memories faded," said the court. "The claim has grown stale."

Bananas: Tasty, Healthy, Easy to Eat

Have you ever stopped to think that bananas are one of nature's most perfect foods? Chock full of vitamins, bananas are a good source of calcium, iron and potassium. Bananas have only a trace of fat and a negligible amount of sodium. One medium size banana contains only 85 calories, and bananas are so easily digested they can be enjoyed by youngsters and oldsters alike. Remember, too, that bananas come untouched and ready to eat in that easy-to-remove protective cover we call a peel.

The Cabana banana people report that Dr. Michael DeBakey, the noted Houston vascular surgeon, is one person who eats at least one banana every day. Dr. DeBakey has said about bananas "Do you know anything as tasty, healthy and easy to eat?" Most of us would readily agree, but too often we eat our bananas in the same old way. So the home economist in Standard Fruit's Cabana Kitchen has been hard at work developing new ways for us to enjoy this delicious and healthful fruit. She has given us this different banana recipe to try. It is a delicious new chutney sauce to serve with lamb, chicken or shrimp.

Cabana Chutney

- |   |                          |
|---|--------------------------|
| 3/4 cup brown sugar                       | 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard |
| 1/2 cup vinegar                           | 1 stick cinnamon         |
| 2 tablespoons chopped crystallized ginger | 4 whole cloves           |
| 1/4 cup chopped onion                     | 1/2 cup light raisins    |
|   | 3 Cabana bananas         |

Combine ingredients except bananas. Bring to a boil, simmer uncovered for 10 minutes. Peel and dice bananas; add to spicy syrup and simmer an additional 5 minutes. Cool. May be covered and stored in refrigerator several days. Makes about 1 pint. Serve with lamb, chicken or shrimp.

Agriculture Commissioner Jim Buck Ross and Linda Dickey, an employee of the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce, recently selected as an "outstanding young woman of America," apply a bright bumper sticker to the Commissioner's car. Fire Ants now infest more than 62 of Mississippi's 82 counties and spread to millions of acres each year. The bumper stickers were supplied by individuals interested in eliminating the vicious foreign ants. A spokesman for the group said, "We don't even have a name yet. We just wanted to do something to help fight this menace."

Halloween Twisters Of Your Own

For an original touch to the Halloween festivities — why not make your own pretzels? Here's an easy and creative recipe — and fun too!

Mix the following together in a large mixing bowl:

1 1/2 cups of warm water
1 cake of compressed yeast (or package dry powdered yeast)
1 teaspoon of sugar

Let stand for one hour.

Then mix in 4 1/2 cups of flour. Knead mixture for about 10 minutes. Pre-heat oven for 5 minutes to warm it, then turn OFF the heat. Place mixture in a greased bowl, cover it, and place in the warm oven for about an hour until mixture doubles.

When it has doubled in size, make the twists as shown below.

Place the twists on a greased cookie sheet — not too close together for they spread. Then — to make them look perfect —

Dilute one egg yolk with one or two tablespoons of water or milk. Brush a thin coat of the liquid on each pretzel. Sprinkle with coarse salt.

Bake in a preheated oven at 475 degrees for 12-15 minutes until they are golden brown. Yields about 2 dozen.

Eat them hot, right out of the oven, dipped in mustard, the way the professional pretzel bakers do, or dipped in a special Halloween dip. Your own homemade pretzels — delicious.

HOW TO TWIST

Step One: Take a chunk of dough about the size of a golf ball. Roll into a "rope" about 15" long. Be sure to work on a piece of wax paper so that the dough doesn't stick.

Step Two: Make a loop by carefully picking up the ends. Your pretzel is beginning to take shape.

Step Three: Bring the left end of the loop over to the right — and the right end under the left. A twist will be formed in the center.

Step Four: For the traditional three hole shape, bring the ends over and down. Press them against the sides of the loop. Now you have a perfect twist pretzel.

YUMMY HALLOWEEN DIPS
A special treat to go along with your freshly baked pretzels is a delicious Halloween dip. Here are two that will delight your family or enhance any Halloween party.

Witch's Brew Dip
1/4 cup each, finely chopped onion and green pepper. Drop into heavy saucepan in which 2 tablespoons butter is bubbling and saute a minute or two. Don't brown. Add salt and pepper lightly.

Now add 1/2 pound grated cheddar cheese and let it melt over VERY LOW heat. Stir in one small can minced pimientos with their juice and mix well. Add 1 tablespoon frozen chives, 2 teaspoons good chili powder, 1 teaspoon dry mustard and a dash of garlic salt. Serve hot with your hot pretzels. If it gets too thick add heated beer! Sounds queer? No argument, but, it's delicious and will disappear like magic.

Green Goblin Dip Delight
Buy 4 very ripe avocados. Cut in halves, peel and place in small deep bowl. Cover with lemon juice, about 1 tablespoon. Using silver fork, mash and whip until smooth. Stir in 1/2 clove garlic finely minced, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon tabasco with a tablespoon more lemon juice. Now add 2 teaspoons mayonnaise and 1/4 cup tomato juice, heat.

VETERANS ASK

Q. I was recently honorably discharged from the Army. While stationed in the United States, I received a service-connected disability. Will I be paid the wartime disability rate or the peace time rate?

A. The law grants wartime compensation rates for service-connected disabilities for Vietnam Era veterans (those serving in the Armed Forces after Aug. 4, 1964) no matter where they served. Contact your nearest VA office for information and assistance in applying for disability compensation.

Q. I am entitled to training allowances as a Post Korean veteran. My mother is dependent upon me for all her support. May I claim her as my dependent and be paid additional training allowance?

A. Yes, your dependent mother makes you eligible for additional allowance.

Q. I served in Vietnam. What is the first thing I should do to get a G.I. home loan?

A. When you talk to real estate people and home mortgage lenders it is advisable to have proof of your eligibility which you may obtain from your nearest VA office. Your application to the VA should be accompanied by a copy of your discharge papers.

Q. I have lost my discharge papers. Can VA furnish me with a copy?

A. No. It can be obtained from your individual branch of service. These addresses may be obtained from any VA regional office.

CATTLE LICE

Before cold weather arrives is a good time to spray your cattle to prevent build ups of cattle lice. It is also a good idea to recharge your backrubbers now to hold down hornfly populations and also re-press lice.

Be sure to use a recommended insecticide, in the recommended manner and in the recommended amount.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER PEAT, JR.

Miss Carver Weds Walter Peat, Jr.

First Presbyterian Church, Gulfport, was the setting for the wedding October 10 of Miss Joy Elaine Carver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carver, Waveland, and Walter Peat Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Peat Sr. of Gulfport.

Rev. Thorne Hardin, pastor, Trinity Episcopal Church, Pass Christian, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mr. Thomas Bourdin, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and a program of appropriate selections during the ceremony.

Arrangements of white flowers, ivy and branched candelabras decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ernest Carver Jr., the bride wore a white gown with long lace sleeves. A long lace bordered the skirt and cathedral train. Her full length veil of illusion fell from a lace pill box trimmed with pearls and beads and she carried a bouquet of miniature carnations and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Thomas Benigno of Lafayette, La., served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. George D'Zan, Miami, Fla., and Miss Sarah McFarland, New Orleans.

They wore red velvet floor length dresses fashioned with a pail collar edged in braid and tiny covered buttons down the center. The long sleeves were trimmed with the tiny buttons. They wore pearl sole head bows and carried cascades of peppermint carnations. Miss Mary Carver, niece of the bride served as flower girl and her nephew, Ernest Carver III was ring bearer.

George D'Zan, Miami, Fla., served the groom as best man and Thomas Benigno, Lafayette, La., was groomsmen. Allynus Jacob, cousin of the bride, Waveland, and John Cary Trochesset, Biloxi, ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Downtowner, Gulfport. The bride's table, covered with an imported linen cloth, held a four-tiered cake trimmed with roses and sugar bells. Candelabras holding white tapers were on either side. Mr. Louis Jacob, uncle of the bride, presided at the cake table and Miss Kathleen Trochesset kept the guest register.

Mrs. Carver received their guests wearing a beige light wool suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gold colored carnations.

The mother of the groom chose a beige dress, matching accessories and a carnation corsage.

For traveling the bride wore an orange wool suit with black accessories and an orchid shoulder bag.

The bride, a graduate of Bay St. Louis Senior High School, attended the University of Southern Mississippi and Jefferson Davis Junior College. The groom graduated from St. Stanislaus, Bay St. Louis and Jefferson Davis Junior College. He is presently employed at M. Saloum Toggery, Gulfport.

The couple will make their home in Gulfport.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Springer, Cindy and Linda Woods, Mrs. Herbert Martello Sr., Herbert Martello Jr., Miss Sandra Linker, Mr. and Mrs. James DeVelle, Karen DeVelle, Alan McKoyan III, Mr. and Mrs. James East, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Oustalot, Rene Guss, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Pugh and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Mims.

Mrs. William Richardson, program chairman, presented a demonstration on Christmas decorations. Mrs. John Baydages showed pictures and discussed tulip bulbs and chandelier daylilies, telling where they can be obtained.

The following awards were given for flower arrangements: Mrs. Frank Klein Jr., cultivated; Mrs. Caroline, potted; Mrs. Leonard Bay, wild and Mrs. Klein, dried. Mrs. Bay was the door prize.

The next meeting will be held at 12:30 p.m., November 16 in the home of Mrs. Klein. Each member is asked to bring a Christmas decoration.

St. Ann's Religion Discussion Club met Monday night at the Rectory.

Rev. Francis Donohue, pastor St. Ann's Parish, and Sister Elizabeth Mary discussed the format for future meetings.

All Parishioners of St. Ann's and St. John's are invited to join in the discussions to be held each Monday night at 7:30 in the rectory.

GLORIA THROWS A TANTRUM in this tense scene from WAIT UNTIL DARK, under rehearsal by the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre. Gloria is being played by Cathy Cox, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C.J. Cox. Mrs. Calvert Smith of Waveland has the role of Suzy Hendrix, played on the Broadway stage by Lee Remick and in the movie by Audrey Hepburn. WAIT UNTIL DARK will open on November 5 for a three-night run. (Photo by Ed Fayard).

Were Married On Saturday

Miss Sheila Ann Asher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Asher of Bay St. Louis, and Private Roy Lassabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lassabe of Pass Christian, were married at 7 p.m., Saturday with Judge Forrest Necoise officiating.

Attendants were Miss Donna Marie Asher, sister of the bride, and Tom Lassabe, brother of the groom.

A reception was held at the home of the bride. Private Lassabe will return to duty with the U.S. Army in California October 24, prior to leaving for overseas duty. Mrs. Lassabe will remain with her parents until his return from Viet Nam.

Charles Jeffery Rhodes, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C.E. (Dusty) Rhodes was baptized Sunday afternoon in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with Rev. Gregory Johnson, pastor Our Lady of the Gulf Church, and Rev. Bernard Walton, pastor Main Street United Methodist Church, officiating.

Sponsors were Monti Rhodes, a paternal uncle, and Mrs. Miles Jeffery, a maternal aunt.

Following the christening a reception was held in the home of the grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jeffery, coming from out of town for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Miles Jeffery of Vicksburg and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Liem of Biloxi.

Plan County Fair Entries

Edwardsville Extension Homemakers Club met last Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Darrell Favre with Mrs. Edna Poolson, president, conducting the business session.

Mrs. Poolson read an article entitled "Focus on Food," and gave a report on the recent citizenship workshop which she attended in Ellisville.

Plans and entries for the county fair scheduled for November 2-7 were discussed.

Miss Dixie Parlier, assistant Home Economist, met with the group.

Following the business session a social hour was held with Mrs. Favre and Mrs. Norvin Fayard as hostesses.

The next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m., November 10 in the home of Mrs. Poolson.

Blue Jeans Garden Club

Blue Jeans Garden Club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Saleeby with 14 members attending.

Mrs. H. Dulce, club president, appointed Mesdames Vivian Motzert, Stella Rhoads and Joseph Goodies as a committee to nominate officers for the coming year.

Mrs. William Richardson, program chairman, presented a demonstration on Christmas decorations. Mrs. John Baydages showed pictures and discussed tulip bulbs and chandelier daylilies, telling where they can be obtained.

The following awards were given for flower arrangements: Mrs. Frank Klein Jr., cultivated; Mrs. Caroline, potted; Mrs. Leonard Bay, wild and Mrs. Klein, dried. Mrs. Bay was the door prize.

The next meeting will be held at 12:30 p.m., November 16 in the home of Mrs. Klein. Each member is asked to bring a Christmas decoration.

Discussion Club Meeting

St. Ann's Religion Discussion Club met Monday night at the Rectory.

Rev. Francis Donohue, pastor St. Ann's Parish, and Sister Elizabeth Mary discussed the format for future meetings.

All Parishioners of St. Ann's and St. John's are invited to join in the discussions to be held each Monday night at 7:30 in the rectory.

WHY NOT?
LET TOMMY SHAW REPRESENT YOU AS SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER
FROM BEAT 3

Nothing is more uniquely American than local control of public schools. By wisely electing representatives, the American public can insure that their children receive quality education. Because of this, I would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for the office of Hancock County School Board Member from Beat 3.

To some of the citizens of Hancock County who may not know me, I am a native of Hancock County, a graduate of Sallors High School. I am 38 years of age. My wife is a homemaker and we have three sons. Our son, Tim, is attending the University of Mississippi. Our son, Randy, is a high school student and Don is a fourth grade student at North Central. Because of my own and my children, I am vitally interested in the Hancock County School System.

I own and operate a successful dairy farm. I am a member of the Wolf Creek Baptist Church. Other memberships include the Hancock County School Board, the Hancock County Farm Bureau, a director of the Gulf Coast Extension and a director of the Hancock County Fair.

As a School Board member, I pledge to do the following things:

1. To conduct the duties as a school board member with integrity and open-mindedness.
2. Strive to create an atmosphere of friendly cooperation with the community.
3. Work to restore the lost prestige to the County School System.
4. Take courageous action for the good of the schools in the future and influence.
5. Accept the principle of hard unity and the subordination of self-interest.
6. Demonstrate initiative, informal leadership, and insight in handling school and policy making.

My friends, as guardians of our greatest treasure -- our children -- I urge you to compare your candidate carefully. Choose well because your choice is enduring.

Members Exchange Plants

The October 15th meeting of the Lakeshore Garden Club was held at the Forest Street home of Mrs. H.W. Duke in Clarksburg Harbor with Mrs. A. M. Thomas as co-hostess.

Three new members were welcomed into the club: Mrs. Louis Forest, Mrs. G.T. Moore and Mrs. C. F. Schwartz, Jr.

A short discussion was held as to what members could do collectively towards cleaning up our coastal environment. However, since time did not permit a lengthy pursuit of the subject, a motion was unanimously carried to get something started in this direction and a definite plan will be presented at the club's November 19th meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Corcoran, who will have Mrs. H.W. Duke as her co-hostess. Lovely potted plants were exchanged by members and a social hour followed with refreshments being served.

The entrance prize, a beautiful potted bird-of-paradise, was won by Mrs. Harry Rothmann.

On September 28th, 1970, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Haggerty Sr. of New Orleans, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary by returning their marital vows in St. Alphonsus Catholic Church - followed by a surprise reception held at the home of Mrs. James Williams.

The wedding took place in one of the Chapels in Fort Benning, Columbus, La. At that time Mrs. Haggerty was June Elliott WAVE, RMEM of Green Cove Springs, Fla and Mr. Haggerty was a Sgt. Paratrooper Airborne Division in the Panama area.

After honorable discharges, the couple made their permanent home in New Orleans, La. They have eleven children and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Haggerty is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott of Bay St. Louis, Miss. Mr. Haggerty, clerk of the Criminal District Court is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edw. A. Haggerty Sr.

Attend Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaRosa spent the weekend in Mobile as guests of his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vrazel.

While there they attended the wedding Sunday evening of the Vrazels' son Gary Joseph Vrazel and Miss Gary Gail Koemmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Koemmer at St. Vincent's Catholic Church.

The mother of the groom is the former Ida La Rosa of Pass Christian. Attending the wedding from Pass Christian were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Niolet, their son Chuck and daughter Brenda.

LG Parents Club Meeting

Our Lady of the Gulf held its monthly meeting Thursday night in the Parish Hall. Sister Maria, principal, showed a film and spoke on "The English," being taught in school. Father Gregory, pastor, gave a talk on the importance of parents' participation in their children's education and activities. Father also complimented the ball coach, Mr. Ronnie Tancini, for the fine job he is doing with the boys. Mr. Tancini was introduced to the standing room crowd of parents. Mr. Tancini said all "Bear" games are scheduled and will be shown on a regular basis to be announced by the school. A "Bear Backers" Club has been organized and anyone interested may apply for membership.

The seventh grade mothers met under the direction of the room mother, Mrs. James Ginn, were present for the evening. Mrs. Charles Stachle is room mother for the eighth grade. Mrs. Richard Sallins was appointed program chairman.

Winner of the 50-50 prize was Mrs. Chester Favre, Jr. and Mrs. John Sciana won the door prize. Mrs. Burt Barrett and Mrs. Pat Murphy tied for attendance award.

After the business session the parents visited the library to purchase books for sale in the Book Fair.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Ellison

Each week is a different story regarding fishing. The last week with cooler weather and Northeast winds and fast falling tides seemed to hamper fishing somewhat. Pearl River, Jordan River and Bayou La Poudre became muddy after the rains of last Monday but are clearing fast. They should be better by the end of this week. Speckle trout were caught in the Hi-way bridge and along the Railroad Bridge. The fish are evidently pushed to outside waters by the muddy water in the river.

The water out by the marshes and in Lake Borne are too rough for any fishing for the weekend. On the hunting side haven't heard of many squirrels and rabbits being killed. The second weekend of the dove season is on Nov. 7th, and runs till Nov. 29th. Have had reports that some doves are moving down this way. Should have some good shooting with cooler weather coming.

Lamar, L. Ladner said he was waiting for the quail season. Think this is Lamar's favorite sport.

Clem Sehit had a fishing party out on his boat the "Green" over the weekend.

They were after specks and fish. Ike Lang is the skipper. He knows the fishing spots, and how to get 'em.

Millie Rutledge is one of our best lady fishermen. On a recent trip with Jack she was catching two at a time. Kinder loved the men folks up.

Unusual you can bet! Mrs. Claire Niven throws a cast net like nobody's business. She was caught by one of the Sick Brothers, and has been catching her share of shrimp.

G.H. "Speedy" Will, would like to know why his fishing friends from New Orleans have a non-resident license. He would like to know, too, Speedy. It's the law we guess.

Doug Tisdale has been catching a lot of speckles, reds and Bull Croakers up Jordan River. Doug is an ardent fisherman.

Was nice to meet Joseph Messina an old time fisherman who owns a camp at Passaure land near the Rigolets. Joe is a friend of long standing of pole, Bud Sellar and Chas. West of Waveland. We have some good fishing here, too.

James Adams who works Winn-Dixie claims to be a mighty good fisherman. There are plenty fishing waiting to be caught hereabouts, James.

Lionel Bordages caught 16 reds in three days, he claims. Don't doubt it a bit. There are plenty reds in Bayou Caddy here he caught them.

P.G. Uran and family live at Cedar Point and do a lot of fishing. He bought out a good point when he said that people fishing, boat riding and shelling would have a little regard for others fishing. On the other hand when drinking beer, cold drinks, etc. why not carry a little bag. The seawall and people's yards are not a dump on ground. Those are my sentiments, P.G. While shrimping at the seawall take the trash with you. Let's keep our seawall clean and help get rid of pollution.

Waiter Bieller of Waveland has a lot of hunting, fishing and shrimping. Waiter has done it many years. Always ready to be said.

Justin B. Martinez has a home in the Kith. He came from New Orleans originally. Juan goes to fish and catch crabs, fishing, partying, with both. He is a good fisherman for some reason he claims.

Buddy Dupont, one of our best water fishermen said he caught a 4-pound speckle trout with 18 others, don't mind a 2-pound last week. Let us know your scores, Buddy.

Was sorry to hear of the death of Jerry (Bully) Bourgeois last week. Jerry loved to fish and catch crabs. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Was glad to hear from Jim Fillingame. Jim lives at Long Beach and owned a camp on Bayou LaCrosse for many years before Camille came along. He expects to rebuild when things get straightened out. His many friends will be glad to hear this. Jim is a real guy and an ardent fisherman.

Bob Stroud of Waveland likes his fishing and catches everything. Promised to go with me three years ago.

Ray Garner was a happy fellow last week. He caught a 3 1/2 pound bass in a farm pond. It hit like dynamite and pulled like a horse, he said. I know what you mean, partner.

Gene Mitchell caught 45 speckles in Bayou LaCrosse one day last week. They shall return when the water clears up Gene.

Understand Mrs. Pat Saucier caught 13 bull croakers last week. Must have gotten into them. Believe it or not, Croakers are a good eating fish and it's fun to catch them.

The world series is over but bull croakers have not come into the croaker hole at Pearl River. Was there Saturday, better late than never, we say.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

Don't know much about Doctor Robert Pflug as a fisherman but when it comes to hunting doves he is tops. Doc is from Chalmette, La. but has a lot of hunting friends in Hancock County. He hunts with Dr. Amile Bertucci.

Mr. and Mrs. Hap Long love to fish when they can find time. They own the Swinging Door and G&S Lounge.

Nell and Earl Olliver do a lot of fishing down Ansley way. Lately they have been catching bull croakers.

Joe Boudreaux when not doing electrical work heads for the Bayou. Joe does a lot of fishing and catches his share of fish.

Charts Available

Official charts of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway from New Orleans to Apalachee Bay, Florida, showing channels, serving ports located along this reach as well as the Waterway itself, have been updated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Mobile District and are available to the public for $2 per set of twenty-one bound sheets.

The charts cover a 382-mile-long stretch of the Waterway paralleling the Gulf of Mexico heavily used by both commercial and pleasure craft and serving as an important connecting link for inland waterways in this section.

A helpful feature of the charts is tick marks shown at five-mile (statute) intervals, enabling navigators to correlate distances in miles with U.S. Coast Guard navigation aids along the waterway.

The new charts may be ordered by mail at $2 per set postpaid. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the Treasurer of the United States, and remittance should accompany requests. Personal checks will be accepted.

THE BAY JR. HIGH Garden Club, the Merry-Golds, participated in the current Clean-up, Fix-up, Paint-up Campaign Saturday by cleaning up Second Street from Union to Highway 90.

THEFT CHARGES

Four juveniles ranging in ages from 15 to 17 were charged with thefts of automobiles. It is reported the youngsters left one stolen automobile parked on the other side of the Bay Bridge and took a car parked with the keys in from 125 Carroll Avenue. Officers checking the automobiles found a gun, a .22 pistol and a knife which the young people said they had taken in Bay St. Louis. Owners of the weapons may claim them by giving the serial numbers to authorities, deputy Tartavouille said.

THE ADVANTAGES OF TOTAL electric living help sell homes for Kenneth H. Cochran of State Realty Company, Laurel. "A big selling point, particularly with the ladies, is the cleanliness of flameless electric heating and cooling."

Residential Builder Kenneth H. Cochran says: "Total electric homes? I'm 100 percent sold on them!"

Kenneth H. Cochran, Laurel builder-developer, believes that electric living is the modern trend, and he is 100 percent sold on total electric homes.

"Since 1967, we have built and sold over 150 total electric homes. We insist on building top quality and minimum maintenance into State Realty Company homes, and the all-electric home best meets these requirements," says Ken.

Flameless electric heating and cooling systems are two important features of Cochran's homes. Other features include such work-saving appliances as electric ranges, dishwashers, food disposers, and quick-recovery water heaters. Special attention is given to full housepower wiring, adequate insulation, interior/exterior electrical outlets, and closet lighting.

"We have found that homeowners like the economy of Mississippi Power Company's all-electric rate. And budget billing lets them pay the same each month for their electric service."

MISSISSIPPI POWER COMPANY Helping You Live Better Electrically

"While customers differ in their preference in architectural styles, they want their homes to be all-electric. We believe that the total electric home is a wise investment, too," he concludes.

P.S.—Is Mr. Cochran's own home total electric? You bet it is!

FULL HOUSEPOWER WIRING in these total electric homes provides for the efficient operation of electrical appliances which make life more convenient, more comfortable, and more enjoyable, for every member of the family.

"MY EXPERIENCE IN HOME building has convinced me that adequate insulation adds to both the comfort and the economy of a total electric home," says Ken.
